

FOURTH ARTS BLOCK INC. ANNUAL REPORT

Financial Year 2018

Dear Neighbors, Colleagues, and Friends of FAB:

2017/18 was a year of growth and change at FAB! A new team, a new partnership with Downtown Art, more than twenty new member groups, and an expanded board of artists and leaders. Through it all, we sought to balance this surge of new energy with a commitment to FAB's core values: community, creativity, inclusion, civic engagement, and respect.

Central to our goals was to ensure that FAB was true to its mission - "strengthening the cultural life of the Lower East Side" - which we define historically, running from 14th Street to Canal, Bowery to the East River. With deep roots on East 4th Street, FAB's future depends on its full engagement with this broader community.

As a team, we took steps to build our understanding of the issues, histories, and cultural makeup of the LES. We reviewed existing programs in light of their impact and effectiveness. We strove to strengthen partnerships across the community and deepen our involvement in community issues like sustainability and small business displacement. We started new pilot programs, adapted existing ones, streamlined administrative processes where we could. We're proud of the work that emerged, the relationships that moved forward. Our team ended the fiscal year with a strong sense of accomplishment and a new depth of understanding.

FAB is always about partnership. We all agree that the joy in our work comes from our collaborations with so many of you—artists, cultural workers, organizers, activists, residents, small business owners, students, and neighbors. We're excited to continue working with you to sustain the diversity and cultural vitality of the place we love and share: the Lower East Side.

place we l	love and sha	are: the Lower	East Side.
Yours,

Ryan

2017 - 2018 HIGHLIGHTS

Increased membership from 24 to 45 full and affiliate member groups in the Lower East Side

Launched 'The People's LES', building out LES History Month to an ongoing, year round program; includes website connecting to oral and other local histories, and a public program series

Initiated artist residencies with Chinatown Art Brigade and Native Art Department International

Joined the task force to bring the Stanton Street building in Sarah D. Roosevelt Park back to community use

Transformed our affordable workspace project, Dance Block, to an online platform, opening up better services for the 400+ choreographers using in each year

Created a video series introducing FAB staff and program highlights

Started new member programs including a new peer share group; video making workshop; membership meeting with City Councilwoman Carlina Rivera

Redesigned communications for our eblasts and social media; launched new podcast episodes; developed an online community asset map (City in a City)

Collaborated with Downtown Art to create mural works, oral histories, banners, and buttons to support local sustainability organizing and public housing residents working with GOLES and LES Ready!

Launched 'Culture Work LES', a mailing list of local resident artists and cultural workers to receive news on local jobs and other opportunities

Worked side by side with Downtown Art, sharing space, staff, and complementary program goals

Collaborated with Community Board 3 to host info sessions and survey of local arts and culture priorities

GROWTH AT FABNYC

Built skills through staff participation in Arts & Democracy's 'Cultural Organizing' day-long workshop, a two day Advocacy Institute workshop by the NYC Cultural Agenda Fund, a Pratt Institute workshop on accessing city data, and in-house peer led training on LES history, demographics, and needs

Attended community events of significance in the LES such as Community Board meetings, City town halls, presentations on major local developments, hearings, events honoring long time residents and activists, cultural institution openings, vigils, local parades and festivals

Collaborated with NYU's Art + Community Program at Steinhardt School for Education on multiple student projects documenting community assets and school-based local engagement

Coordinated an immigration and sanctuary learning event for a city coalition of cultural groups, presenting Art Sanctuary, New Sanctuary NYC, and ICE Free Queens

'March for Our Lives' walk out event in front of Downtown Art.with FABnyc members, allies, neighbors, and friends. Photo by Dakota Scott

Presented at conferences, panels, and rallies organized by Association for Neighborhood Housing and Development on community/cultural partnerships

Organized a local walk-out event in solidarity with 'March for Our Lives' student protest of gun violence

Led presentations on the history of FAB for two NYU classes, national Open Engagement conference; interviewed for oral history by Urban Democracy project

Renovated, repaired, and painted FAB storefront office

Improved administration, setting up new banking procedures, eliminating sizable cash transactions, getting notary public license

Restructured staffing roles and responsibilities

Secured increased city and state funding and a new multi-year grant from New York Community Trust supporting an in-depth process to review and structure the relationship between FAB and Downtown Art
